

Every Year 14th of December is observed as National Energy Conservation Day. State Designated Agency under Electricity Department, Govt. of Goa in collaboration with Goa Science Centre, Miramar celebrated National Energy Conservation day by organizing Essay writing competition for Higher Secondary school students and Painting/Poster competition for high school students. The aim of organizing these competitions among young generation is to drive mass awareness about the importance of energy efficiency and conservation for our future generation.

Following are the details of the programs organized:

ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

State Level Essay Writing Competition on topic Role of student making an effort to Reduce Energy Consumption was organized for the Higher Secondary School Students on 7th December 2022. Total 86 students registered for the workshop followed by interacting session on Energy Efficiency and Conservation by Shri Abhinav Apte, Environmental Consultant in Sustainability and Certified Energy Auditor.

Interactive Session on Energy Efficiency and Conservation

A Mobile van was parked in the premises of Goa Science Centre on 7th December 2022 to make the people specially school students aware about the Energy Conservation and to disseminate information about how to manage the energy sufficient service.

PAINTING & POSTER DESIGNING COMPETITION

A Painting Competition on theme Energy is Life: Conserve for school students of class Vth to VIIth standard and Poster Designing Competition on theme Save Energy for Sustainable Future for the students of class VIIIth to Xth standard was organized on 12th December 2022. Total 365 students participated in the competition.

